Lottie died January 4, 2014 at Crest View Healthcare Community in Chadron, Nebraska. Lottie Mae Markham Nicks was born December 9, 1919 at Avery, Red River County, Texas to Charles and Mary Dunson Markham. She married Thomas George "T. G." Nicks June 24, 1939 in Avery, Texas.

T. G. and Lottie farmed near Avery Texas until they moved to Petersburg, Texas during the summer of 1953. While living in Petersburg, Texas, Lottie was employed in the Petersburg Cotton Gin office during the cotton harvest season. After moving to Sherman, Texas in February, 1955, Lottie was employed by Pools Manufacturing, Burlington Mills, then Texas Instruments until her retirement in 1982.

Lottie was a faithful Christian having obeyed the Gospel in 1935 at the age of sixteen. She was a member of various Churches of Christ throughout the years wherever she lived and had been a member of the Howe Church of Christ, Howe, Texas since 1995. After moving to Chadron, Nebraska in 2008 to be near her daughter, she was a member of the Chadron Church of Christ.

She took great pride in her cooking, sewing, and being an excellent homemaker, wife and mother as well a great friend to many.
