DeeDee died on August 19, 2013 at Pioneer Manor Nursing Home in Hay Springs.

She was born November 20, 1916 in Alliance, NE, to Samuel Hardin Cole and Addis (Miller) Cole. She attended Alliance Public Schools and graduated from Alliance High School with the Class of 1934.

She attended the University of Nebraska at Lincoln Teachers College, majoring in physical education. She then taught rural school and worked with the Works Progress Administration (WPA) as the Recreation Director of Deuel County.

While attending the University in Lincoln, she met Claud King, and they were united in marriage in 1940. She accepted the many challenges and struggles that a "city girl" found in adjusting to rural living. To this union, three sons were born: twins, Dennis and Jack, and Thomas.

Dee Dee managed the sale barn cafe in Rushville for a number of years and worked in the Sheridan County Assessor's office for several years.

After raising her children, she renewed her Red Cross Water Safety Instructors certificate and began teaching swimming. She thoroughly enjoyed her years giving the lessons and was very sad when health issues demanded she give up teaching. She loved small animals and owned many spoiled cats and dogs over the years.

Dee Dee was an active member of the United Methodist Church, United Methodist Women, P.E.O. and Ladies Columbian Reading Club (LCRC).

Preceding her in death were husband Claud, sons Jack and Tom, and sister Maxine (Maki) Hunt.

Survivors include son Dennis (Leah) of Alliance, daughter-in-law Karen of Fairfield, MT, 4 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren and 2 great great grandchildren.

Memorials may be given the Parkview Transportation Fund, Cottey College, the United Methodist Women, or the donor's choice. Donations may be sent to Chamberlain Pier Funeral Home, PO Box 366, Gordon, NE 69343.
