James died Sunday, October 27, 2013 at Chadron Community Hospital following a brief illness. Cremation took place in Rapid City, South Dakota.

Bill was born on March 11, 1924 in Gering, Nebraska to William and Lola Ehrman. He was raised on the family farm near Gering, and graduated from Melbeta High School in 1942. He attended Scotts Bluff Junior College, and enlisted in the U.S. Army, proudly serving during World War II in Japan and the Philippines. He married Frances Murphy on November 27, 1947, in Mitchell, Nebraska. They moved to Mirage Flats in 1949 and began farming one of the original units of the Mirage Flats Irrigation District. Bill spent over 50 successful years farming on Mirage Flats and retired as the last active farmer of those who originally settled the District. He had a lifelong passion for riding motorcycles and spent many happy hours riding with his friends and family. He was a loving and dedicated husband, father, and grandfather, and he will be greatly missed.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 53 years, parents, sister, and brother.
