12/01/2012 - Carmen Kay Fisher

Carmen Kay Fisher, age 61, passed away on November 20, 2012 at Crestview Care Center in Chadron after a lengthy illness. She was cremated and a private family service will be held at a later time.

Carmen was born January 21, 1951 in Gordon, Nebraska to John Andersen and Betty Alice Davis. The family later moved to Wyoming, and Carmen attended school and graduated from Lander High School. She then moved to Greeley, Colorado and worked as a caregiver and then in real estate as a bookkeeper. After living in Idaho for a time, she moved to Chadron.

She had many interests and she loved reading books.

Carmen was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her partner and soul mate Steve Langford and his extended family and friends.
