(Neb.)-Coal Train Derails Between Ashby And Hyannis

By: Roxie Graham-Marski Posted at: 10/03/2012 09:31 AM

ASHBY, Neb. (ASSOCIATED PRESS) - No injuries are reported in a coal train derailment in western Nebraska.

The derailment involved a Burlington Northern Santa Fe train. The railroad says 29 loaded cars on the eastbound train went off the tracks around 5 a.m. Tuesday in a rural area between Ashby and Hyannis.

The train was pulling more than 100 cars. The cars involved in the derailment were in the middle and ended up on their side.

Cleanup is under way. The derailment is under investigation.
