ALLIANCE, Neb. (AP) - A hearing for a woman suspected of helping to hide the body of a Denver man in northwest Nebraska has been delayed again.

So Rose Siefke (SEHF'-kee) will have to wait until Oct. 17 to challenge the case against her. Prosecutors say Siefke helped her boyfriend, Andres Gonzalez, hide the body of Joshua Bullock.

Gonzalez was killed in June after a daylong standoff with police in Alliance where he wounded three officers.

Investigators believe she helped Andres Gonzalez hide Bullock's death. Bullock's pickup was found near Chadron in December. Human remains believed to be Bullock's were found in June.
