RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) - Authorities say a federal fugitive has been captured in Rapid City.

The U.S. Marshals Service and local authorities arrested 22-year-old Barry Allman shortly before noon on Tuesday.

Authorities say Allman was furloughed from Hughes County Jail in Pierre in late November to attend a funeral, but he did not return to the jail.

Allman pleaded guilty to two federal charges of assault resulting in serious bodily injury on Nov. 20.

Allman was accused of firing a handgun at the ground while attending a party on the Rosebud Indian Reservation. Authorities say two men were injured when bullets ricocheted off the ground.
