(Neb.)-Sheridan County Commissioners Approve New Member

By: Jeremy Anderson Posted at: 12/17/2012 02:46 PM

(Sheridan County)-The Sheridan County Commissioners met at the regularly scheduled meeting on Monday morning. (December 17th) The meeting convened with a moment of silence for the victims of the massacre at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Connecticut.

The Commissioners approved the appointment of Shirley Gill of Rushville to a three-year term on the Sheridan County Extension Board.

Road Superintendent Tom Kuester reported that he will advertise for bids on three projects and acquisitions. For the purchase of two gravel trailers, also for the hauling of approximately 120 loads of red rock gravel from South Dakota and, for the sealing of cracks on approximately 8 miles of blacktop roads. Bids will be opened at the Commissioners meeting on January 14.

The next meeting of the Board of Commissioners is scheduled for Thursday, January 3 at which time Dan Kling, having been reelected, will be sworn into office. At that time the Commissioners will also reorganize for the coming year by electing a President and appointing members to various committees and boards.
