(Neb.)-Northwest Community Action Partnership Garners New Executive Director

By: Roxie Graham-Marski Posted at: 12/17/2012 11:08 AM

(CHADRON)-Northwest Community Action Partnership has hired Antonio "Hank" Martin as their new executive director. Martin will be in charge of overall operations at NCAP. Before heading back to northwest Nebraska, Martin worked with grant-funded programs, state agencies and private industry in Colorado, providing a variety of client services. Martin has Bachelor's degrees in Criminal Justice and Psychology from Chadron State College and served in the National Guard.

Board president James Krotz says, "We are delighted to welcome Hank to the NCAP team. His experience in human services, his energy and personal warmth will make him a real asset to the whole northwest Panhandle community."

NCAP is a grant-funded agency that provides a variety of services to low-income clients in Dawes, Sheridan, Sioux, Box Butte, and Cherry counties. The agency's mission is to help low-income families and individuals improve the quality of their lives and attain self-sufficiency.
