LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) - The Nebraska gas tax rate is set to drop slightly, meaning Nebraska drivers will see a drop in the price at the pump.

The Nebraska Department of Revenue has announced that state gas tax rate for Jan. 1 through June 30 will decrease 1.6 cents, from 26.2 cents per gallon to 24.6 cents.

On a 13-gallon fill up, that's nearly 21 cents.

It's the lowest rate since the first six months of 2008, when the tax rate was 23 cents a gallon.
