RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) - Police in Rapid City say the driver of a vehicle that plowed through a wall of a funeral home might have suffered a medical problem before the crash.

The sport utility vehicle with two men inside crashed into the Behrens-Wilson Funeral Home on Sunday. Police say there's evidence that the passenger tried to steer the vehicle after the driver became incapacitated.

The men were taken to a local hospital with injuries that police say are not life-threatening.
