(Neb.)-Nine Inducted To Blue Key At CSC

By: Jeremy Anderson Posted at: 01/22/2013 11:40 AM

(CSC)-Nine men were inducted into the Chadron State College chapter of Blue Key Tuesday, Jan. 15, at the Student Center.

Membership in Blue Key is considered to be one of the highest honors a CSC male student can achieve. Members are chosen for displaying leadership, scholarship and character.

The group serves as a student service organization and sponsors projects of benefit to the college and student body. It was chartered on the CSC campus in the spring of 1932.

The men chosen for membership must be full-time students, be a junior or senior, have a cumulative grade-point average of 3.25 and be involved in at least one CSC activity.

The new members:

Gavan Archibald, St. Ann, Jamaica; Jacob Brunette, Pinedale, Wyo.; Ethan Duin, Omaha; Ben Fisher, Comstock; Tanner Jenkins, Oshkosh; Jesse Manke, Phillip, S.D.; Josh McCance, Chadron; Corey Paz, McCook; Danny Reynaga, Alliance; Sam Parker, Harrison.
