(Neb.)-Fatal Shooting In Sidney Deemed An Accident

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP) - Authorities say the fatal shooting of a man in western Nebraska was an accident.

Reports indicate 28-year-old Donald Vizina was at a friend's house in the southern Panhandle city of Sidney on Sunday evening. The friend told police that Vizina was handling a gun when it went off and the bullet struck Vizina.

Cheyenne County Attorney Paul Schaub says Vizina's fatal head wound was self-inflicted and accidental - not a suicide.
