SCOTTSBLUFF, Neb. (AP) - Authorities say a Scotts Bluff County man has died in a rollover accident near Minatare.

The sheriff's office says 20-year-old James Booth died after losing control of his vehicle along some railroad tracks Wednesday night. Sheriff Mike Overman says the vehicle rolled several times and ended up in a ditch.

A passenger was injured.

Overman says speed and alcohol may have been factors in the crash. An autopsy is pending.
