(Neb.) - Deb Fischer for U.S. Senate Highlights Support by ShePAC

Wednesday, April 18, 2012 - Today, Deb Fischer's campaign for U.S. Senate highlighted its support by ShePAC, a political action committee dedicated to electing more conservative women to Congress.

ShePAC is highlighting Senator Fischer as one of five Republican women who will help Republicans take back the majority in the U.S. Senate and put an end to liberal Harry Reid's days as Majority Leader. ShePAC kicked off its support of Senator Fischer by featuring her in a video, which can be viewed by clicking here.

"This is another example of the powerful momentum for Deb Fischer's campaign and we are gaining important support when it matters most," said Fischer Campaign Manager Aaron Trost. "Our campaign has built a dynamic grassroots organization and we have won the last two GOP straw polls by wide margins. As more and more people pay attention to this race, it becomes very clear that Deb Fischer is the best candidate who will beat Bob Kerrey and fight for Nebraska in the U.S. Senate. Senator Fischer is not a career politician; she's a wife, mother, rancher, small business owner and citizen legislator. That's why she is the strongest candidate in this race."
