(S.D.)-Veterans Resource Center To Open In Rapid City

By: Roxie Graham-Marski Posted at: 03/15/2013 06:59 AM

RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) - Military students at the University Center-Rapid City will have one place to turn to for support services when the Veterans Resource Center opens Friday.

A ribbon-cutting ceremony for the center will take place at 1p.m. at the University Center-Rapid City.

Among the scheduled speakers are Gov. Dennis Daugaard, South Dakota National Guard adjutant general Maj. Gen. Timothy Reisch, Black Hills State University President Kay Schallenkamp and South Dakota Board of Regents President Kathryn Johnson.

The resource center will cater to students from all of the six South Dakota public universities attending University Center-Rapid City.
