(Neb.)-Chadron Police Respond To Alley Disturbance

By: Jeremy Anderson Posted at: 03/18/2013 03:00 PM

(Chadron)- Last Wednesday, March 13th, the Chadron Police Department responded to a disturbance in the 300 block of Maple Street.

According to the Chadron Police Department, they had been advised that there were three juvenile males in an alley way between Maple and Lake Streets.

The report indicated that two of the male subjects were kicking and hitting the third male subject.

No more information has been released at this time, including the names of those involved, since they are minors. We will pass more information along as it becomes available.
