(Neb.)- Chadron Police Department Advising NO TRAVEL

By: Jeremy Anderson Posted at: 04/09/2013 11:21 AM

(Chadron)- The Chadron Police Department is advising no travel at this time within the Chadron area. Roads are nearly impassable. City crews are clearing streets, however, the Chadron Police Department has received several requests for assistance from citizens who are getting stuck in the snow.

This then hinders the ability of the street crews to get the streets clear. The Chadron Police Department asks that if you don't have to travel to please just stay home. Also, due to weather conditions, there will be no handibus service today.
