RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) - A Rapid City man accused of having sex with a 15-year-old girl faces charges that could send him to prison for up to 30 years.

Twenty-four-year-old Ezekiel Rodolph has pleaded not guilty to fourth-degree rape and sexual contact with the girl. Each charge carries a maximum penalty of 15 years in prison and a $30,000 fine.

Rodolph is alleged to have had a relationship with the girl between

July and September last year.

Rodolph is free on bond.
