(Neb.)- CSC Ivy Day Royalty Crowned

By: Jeremy Anderson Posted at: 05/04/2013 09:43 AM

(Chadron)- Bryce Harrington, son of Kim Harrington, Grand Island, Neb. and Keanna Gross, daughter of John and Peggy Gross, Ainsworth, Neb. were named as the 2013 Chadron State College Ivy Day King and Queen Friday night at the annual ceremony co-sponsored by the Blue Key and Cardinal Key honor societies.

Harrington is the second member of his immediate family graduating from CSC, joining older brother Brandon. While at CSC, Bryce assisted the athletics department as a student trainer and was an active member with Blue Key and other activities on campus. Graduating with a degree in Business Administration, his future plans are to move back to the Grand Island and pursue a career in business.

Gross will be graduating with a bachelor of arts in Human Biology with an option in Physical Therapy. While at CSC, Keanna participated in the Health Professions Club, Sports Medicine Club, Cardinal Key, Project STRIVE, and was a student trainer for athletics. This fall, Keanna will be attending the Nebraska Methodist for the Physical Therapy Assistant program.

The Platinum Eagle for distinguished leadership and service, considered the highest honor CSC can give, was awarded to Mallory Murdoch, daughter of Marlin and Polly Murdoch, Orleans, Neb. and Nathaniel Martens, son of Quent and Leisa Martens, Newton, Kan.

Murdoch is a Magna Cum Laude graduate with a Biology - Human Biology focus. Martens will graduate with a degree in Criminal Justice and he was recognized with Achievement Award in recognition of receiving Tutor Certification through the College Reading and Learning Association.

Over 100 graduates were recognized with certificates of merit as outstanding students in their primary fields of study or presented other special honors. The ceremony has continued, uninterrupted since 1920.

Special recognition was also given to students who will graduate with one of three honor designations – summa cum laude, magna cum laude and cum laude.
