(Lincoln, NE) - Gary Bieganski of Chadron was elected vice-chair of the Nebraska State College System Board of Trustees. In addition to serving as vice-chair, Bieganski serves as the chair of the academic and personnel committee. Born in El Reno, Okla., Bieganski attended high school in Chadron before earning his degree in business administration and economics at Chadron State College.

Bieganski is president emeritus of the CommunityHospital in McCook where he was responsible for strategic planning, facility development and administrative operations of the hospital. Bieganski was first appointed to the Board in 2006 to fill the unexpired term of Steve Lewis, formerly from Lexington. Bieganski was reappointed to a six-year term by Governor Heineman in 2011. He and his wife, Donna Jean, reside in Chadron and have two sons and five grandchildren.

Bieganski said, "I am pleased that I've had the opportunity to give back to the NSCS as a board member. Our three colleges provide tremendous educational opportunities for their students. I had talented mentors while an undergraduate student at Chadron, and it was what I learned from these faculty that enabled me to enjoy a successful career in hospital administration during the past 44 years."

The seven member board is responsible for policy oversight of the NSCS, which includes Chadron, Peru and WayneStateColleges.
