(Neb.)-Chadron Handibus Will Be Available Today

By: Chris Fankhauser Posted at: 02/25/2014 08:59 AM

(Chadron)-Last week, the City of Chadron announced that there would be no Handibus service in Chadron on Tuesday (today). However, due to the recent arrival of snow in the Chadron area, that plan has changed.

The Chadron Police Department stated this morning that there WILL be Handibus service in Chadron today. The drivers of the Handibus were planning on attending a class in Alliance, but have decided to forego that as a result of the poor driving conditions on the highways in the area.

Rides will be available until 1:30 pm today, and those needing a ride can call 432-0520 to schedule a ride. When or if the class session for the drivers is rescheduled, that information will be passed along in a timely manner so those needing Handibus service can make proper arrangements if need be.
