(Neb.)-Sheridan County Unveils Their New Website

By: Roxie Graham-Marski Posted at: 02/26/2014 09:47 AM

(SHERIDAN COUNTY)-Sheridan County is encouraging county residents and others to visit their brand new Website. Visitors to the site will find information on county offices, services and meetings, as well as links to a variety of other sites of local interest. Of particular interest to property owners is a "tax calculator" devised by commissioner Jack Andersen. The user can enter the assessed value of their property and discover just how much of their tax bill went to support various county offices and services.

For those who enjoy surfing the Internet, make sure to visit the new county Website at http://www.sheridancountyne.com.
