(Neb.)-Chamber Seeks Volunteers For Moonlight Madness Planning

By: Chris Fankhauser Posted at: 08/27/2013 10:54 AM

(Chadron)-Even though temperatures are nearing 100 this week, making it hard to think about fall, that season is just around the corner, and with it, many fun area activities that many members of the community participate in. One of those events is Moonlight Madness, sponsored by the Chadron Chamber of Commerce.

There will be a meeting this week for those interested in assisting with planning the event, held each year in Downtown Chadron. If anyone is interested in making this year's Moonlight Madness the best ever, they are asked to join in on the planning by attending a meeting this Thursday at NOON at the Chamber Office. People should bring a lunch and great ideas to share.

Everyone is welcome to attend, and help make Moonlight Madness a success. This year the event will happen on October 25th. If someone can't make this meeting, they can contact the Chamber Office and let them know that they are interested in volunteering.

For those who can't volunteer, sponsorships for the Penny Carnival, Costume Contest, Ugly Pickup Contest, Guess the Weight of the Pumpkin and other games are needed as well. More information can be obtained by calling the Chamber at 432-4401.
