CASPER, Wyo. (AP) - Police are looking for a man who held up a Casper credit union and escaped with an unknown amount of money.

The man threatened a teller at the River Rail Community Federal Credit Union with a knife and then walked away.

It was the third bank robbery in Wyoming this week.

The Lusk State Bank was robbed on Monday morning but no arrests have been made. The 1st Bank in Afton was robbed Monday afternoon and a 56-year-old man was arrested without incident shortly afterward.

Casper police Lt. Mike Thompson says that investigators checked with the FBI and don't think the Lusk and Casper robberies are connected.
