(Alliance)-An Alliance man was found dead at his place of work as the result of an accident. According to a press release from the Alliance Police Department, the Alliance Police Department and Nebraska State Patrol responded to the report of a workplace death in the 100 Block of South Grand Avenue in Alliance on Monday.

Juan Vasquez, age 46, of Hemingford, was found deceased in a garage at that location. The on-scene investigation and preliminary autopsy results indicate the death was an accident. It appeared that Vasquez was working alone in the garage for about an hour and was crushed by a tag-axle on a large truck.

His employer discovered the accident at about 12:24 p.m. and notified police. Alliance Fire Department personnel responded to check for signs of life. The Box Butte County Coroner pronounced Mr. Vasquez dead at the scene.
