By: Chris Fankhauser Posted at: 07/08/2013 10:28 AM

(Chadron)-Recently, Chadrad viewers may have received a type of error message when trying to access chadrad.com. The message indicates a script on the page is causing the web site to run slow, and asks if the user would like to stop the script from running. The message appears only when Chadrad is being accessed by Internet Explorer. Our technical crew is working on the problem. We appreciate the patience of our viewers while we fix this message.
