By: Chris Fankhauser Posted at: 07/01/2013 07:37 AM

(Scottsbluff)-Fireworks will be gracing the skies above much of the KCSR/KBPY listening area throughout the week, with many communities having professionally produced shows on Thursday, July 4. Western Nebraska Community College is the site from which Tracy Ford will set off fireworks on July Fourth in Scottsbluff.

Parking lots at WNCC will open at 8:00 p.m. for free public viewing of the display. Because this is a safe and family-friendly event, absolutely no alcohol, firearms, or personally owned pyrotechnics are allowed on the premises. Additionally, College buildings and restrooms will not be open to the public.

The fireworks presentation begins at approximately 9:15 or 9:20 p.m. on Thursday, July 4. For more information, contact Ford at 308.631.0550.
