RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) - The Pennington County Sheriff's Office says no foul play is suspected in the discovery of badly decomposed human remains northwest of Pactola Reservoir near Kelly Gulch.

The remains had been spotted by an ATV driver on Tuesday, but searchers could not find the exact location that night. Crews returned on Wednesday morning and found the remains.

The sheriff's office said Friday that an autopsy found no signs of trauma but could not determine a cause of death.

Other evidence on scene led investigators to contact authorities in Seattle related to a person missing since June 2012. Dental records are being examined.
