(Neb.)-State Parks Offer July 4th Activities

By: Chris Fankhauser Posted at: 07/02/2013 09:47 AM

(Crawford)-Several Nebraska parks have full agendas planned for the Fourth of July weekend. Seven of the state recreation areas and one state historical park will allow park goers to set off their own fireworks in designated areas.

Visitors can set off fireworks on July 4 from 8 a.m. until midnight at Branched Oak State Recreation Area (SRA) near Malcolm, Fort Kearny State Historical Park (SHP) near Kearney, Fremont SRA near Fremont, Two Rivers SRA near Venice, Pawnee SRA near Emerald, Wagon Train SRA near Hickman and Memphis SRA near Ashland.

Signs will be posted at the recreation areas directing people to the fireworks sites and their boundaries will be clearly marked. Use of fireworks elsewhere in state areas or at other times is prohibited. Only fireworks approved for sale in Nebraska by the state fire marshal are permitted and visitors must pick up expended fireworks and deposit them in appropriate containers. Here's a summary of event offerings at parks across the state:

- Living History - Fort Kearny State Historical Park SHP

Fort Kearny SHP will fire their cannon at 2 p.m. on July 4, 6 and 7 with scheduled historical living history activities July 6-7. The living history days include staged events that reflect the day-to-day routines of 1860's civilian and soldier camps.

July 4

- Fourth of July Celebration BBQ - Fort Robinson State Park SP

Following the Fourth of July parade in Crawford, Fort Robinson will be hosting a noon BBQ for $6 or a buffet for $8.95 served at the Fort Robinson restaurant.
