LEAD, S.D. (ASSOCIATED PRESS) - The Black Hills communities of Lead (LEED) and Deadwood will serve as the state's honorary capitals for a day next Friday.

Planned activities include a main street walk, tours of both towns, a roundtable meeting and a community social.

Residents are invited to attend the community social from 10 a.m. to 10:35 a.m. at the Days of '76 Museum in Deadwood and meet with Gov. Dennis Daugaard.
