RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) - Rapid City police say the death of a man who was found in an alley behind a bar is being investigated as a homicide.

Authorities say 44-year-old Lamaure Afraid Of Hawk was found Tuesday night by officers who were called to the Brass Rail to arrest an unwanted person causing a disturbance and refusing to leave.

Afraid Of Hawk was pronounced dead at a hospital. Police say preliminary results from an autopsy indicate that he died from a blow to the head.

Police did not immediately make any connection between the man found in the alley and the 19-year-old arrested for resisting arrest and unlawfully drinking alcohol.
