(Neb.)-Chadron State College Volunteer Fundraising Effort Begins

By: Roxie Graham-Marski Posted at: 10/23/2013 09:55 AM

(CHADRON)-The Chadron State Foundation recently held a luncheon to kick off their annual fall fundraising effort.

Over 120 volunteers from both the campus and community will seek donations from campus employees and area businesses through Oct. 30.

Last year, over $200,000 for scholarship and program support was raised.

Two CSC students addressed the audience at the luncheon. Erin Dunn, a secondary education major from Valentine, and Jordan Zeiler a pre-nursing major from Holyoke, Colo.

Both students reinforced the importance of scholarship offers made by Chadron State College. Erin noted that her scholarship not only aided her financially, it also gave her encouragement to attend college.

John Axtell and Fran Grimes both made contributions during the luncheon as well. Axtell encouraged everyone to dig deep in their pockets to finish the building projects that have been started. Grimes thanked the volunteers in attendance and encouraged them to not only donate their time, but also make a financial donation to the campaign.

Each year, four volunteers are designated to co-chair the campaign. They are Jason Carnahan and Senna Reeves from the community side and Brent Barga and Rob Stack from the campus side.

To make a donation to the annual campaign, please contact Leslie Barga at the Chadron State foundation office at 308-432-6366.
