COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – For the second consecutive year, Chadron State College's Emilee Pilkington has been named to the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference All-Academic Women's Golf First Team.

To be eligible for the award, student-athletes must have a GPA of 3.30 or better, be a starter or key reserve and completed two semesters at their current institutions.

Pilkington, a junior from Scottsbluff, has a 3.80 GPA in music education.

For the season, Pilkington averaged 90 strokes per 18 holes and shot a season best round of 84 at the RMAC Championship.

Chadron State's Nicole Tlustos was named to the RMAC All-Academic Second Team. Tlustos has a 3.58 GPA in elementary education.

The RMAC All-Academic Women's Golfer of the Year is Colorado State University-Pueblo's Domi Dinallo.
