The Chadron volleyball team beat Scottsbluff in straight sets at home Thursday night, winning 25-17, 25-19, 25-19.

Maaryn Davis led the way for the Lady Cardinals with 13 kills and seven digs. Ashlea Kerr added eight kills and Peyton Hinn and Chandler Hageman had seven kills each.

Coach Don Matt said his team played very well defensively and was steady on offense. He said the Cardinals have played with much better intensity their last three matches.

The win improves Chadron's record to 15-1. They will host the Western Conference Tournament on Saturday.
