LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska is picked fourth in the Big Ten volleyball coaches' preseason poll.

Defending Big Ten champion Penn State is the coaches' choice to win the league. Minnesota is picked second, followed by Michigan. Following Nebraska is Michigan State and Illinois. The coaches' vote extends only to sixth place.

Nebraska finished last season tied with Minnesota for second place in the conference. The Cornhuskers will have 10 newcomers on this year's team.

No Nebraska players are on the coaches' preseason All-Big Ten team.
