LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — The Nebraska state volleyball tournament will return to Lincoln for three years, starting in 2014.

The Nebraska School Activities Association's board of directors voted Wednesday for the move.

Lincoln hosted the tournament from 1981 through 2009. It was moved to Grand Island in 2010 and will be held there this coming November.

Lincoln's new Pinnacle Bank Arena and a renovated Devaney Sports Center will be used for the tournament next year.
