BOISE, Idaho (AP) - Larry Nance Jr. hit a baseline jump shot with 1.6 seconds left, and Wyoming rallied from a nine-point deficit to stun Boise State 52-50 Saturday night.

Nance finished with 16 points and 10 rebounds to help Wyoming (10-6, 1-2 Mountain West) win its first game on the road. The Cowboys trailed 46-39 with 8:52 to play, but allowed only one field goal the rest of the way to send Boise State (11-5, 1-2) to its second consecutive defeat.

Jerron Granberry and Nathan Sobey scored 11 points for Wyoming, which held the Broncos to just 32 percent shooting for the game. Josh Adams scored 10 points to help offset the team's 17 turnovers.

Anthony Drmic scored 13 of his team's first 15 points and led Boise State with 20 points. Ryan Watkins finished with 15 points and nine rebounds before fouling out. Only five Boise State players scored in the game.
