PHOENIX – The Chadron State College wrestling team won three of four duals Saturday during the Grand Canyon University Duals in Phoenix to complete its two days of competition in Arizona with a 4-1 record.

Only No. 6 ranked (NCAA Division II) Grand Canyon, which won by 26-15 margin, defeated the Eagles. Also on Saturday, Chadron State bested Minot State of North Dakota 33-6, California Baptist 24-18 and Simon Fraser of British Columbia 36-9.

Chadron State beat Embry-Riddle in Prescott 37-9 on Friday.

Three Eagles won all four of their matches Saturday. They are seniors Perry McAfee at 133 pounds and Chris Leak at 197 and junior Jordan Debus at 184.

Leak pinned two of his foes, Debus posted a pin, a technical fall and a major decision and McAfee won four regular decisions.

Also for the Eagles, Leandro Arias recorded two pins while winning three of his four matches at 141 pounds and Dylan Fors was 2-1 at 165 pounds.

Jace Johnson at 125 pounds and Devan Fors at 177 went 2-2, while Tyler Smart won his only match at 165 for CSC, which now has a 4-3 dual record.

The Eagles will be at home on Thursday, Jan. 10 for a 7 p.m. dual with Colorado State-Pueblo.
