Douglas, S.D., hit 17 of 18 free throws to come from behind and beat the Chadron boys basketball team Saturday, 50-48.

The game was tied at nine after the first quarter, but then Chadron was able to take a 17-13 halftime lead. The Cardinals held the lead for much of the second half, before Douglas managed to take the lead in the fourth quarter and hold on with great free throw shooting.

Matt Vinson led the way for the Patriots with 25 points, including 10 of 10 at the foul line. Spencer Eliason paced Chadron with 26 points and 16 rebounds.

The Chadron girls ran away with their game against Douglas, 79-35.

The Lady Cardinals were up 19-6 after the first quarter and continued to build the margin on their way to a 44 point laugh.

Three Lady Cardinals finished with double figures in points, led by 18 from Peyton Hinn. Ashlea Kerr added 11, while Briley Hannaford had 10.

Chadron will return home Tuesday to host Alliance.
