OMAHA – Following a successful season, several members of the Chadron State College football team were selected to the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska Division II Team.

In all, 15 Eagles comprise the 26-member team. The University of Nebraska-Kearney has six selections and Wayne State has five.

Sophomore quarterback Jonn McLain and senior linebacker Kevin Lindholm are the honorary captains for the offensive and defensive squads, while Wayne State punter Randy Weich is the special teams captain.

Including McLain, seven CSC players help make up the offensive unit. They are tailback Glen Clinton, inside receiver Cody Roes, wide receiver Nathan Ross, and offensive linemen Garrett Gilkey, Brandon Ratcliff and Jake McCrary.

The Eagles landed six on the defensive team. They are defensive linemen Keifer Burke and Jan Karlos Medina, linebackers Shea Koch and Lindholm, and defensive backs Lane Haller and Bryce Huebner.

On special teams, kicker Alex Ferdinand and punt returner Trelan Taylor round out CSC's selections.

In addition, three CSC players – all Rapid City, S.D., natives – earned honorable mention. They are Conor Casey, Chapman Ham and Allan Schmaltz.
