DENVER (AP) - Aaron Hill hit a tiebreaking three-run homer in the eighth inning and the Arizona Diamondbacks beat Colorado 10-7 on Sunday, the Rockies' season-high ninth straight loss.

Arizona remained 4 1/2 games behind St. Louis for the second NL wild-card spot.

Wil Nieves had four hits and Hill had three for the Diamondbacks, who have won three straight and six of seven.

Wilin Rosario had three hits for the fourth game in a row and DJ LeMahieu also had three hits for the Rockies.
