LAKESWOOD, Colo. – The Chadron State Eagles struggled on Saturday against Colorado Christian while losing both games in a double-header.

In the first game the Eagles lost 10-0 and only managed five hits offensively. The Eagles' luck didn't change in the second game as the Cougars managed nine runs on nine hits in a 9-1 victory.

The Eagles struggled offensively in both games and only managed eight hits on the day.

Shea Graham was a bright spot for the Eagles as she went 2-2 in the first game of the double-header.

The losses bring the Eagles to 9-12 on the season.

Chadron State hosts the Adams State Grizzly's next Saturday, March 23, in the first of two double-headers.
