(Neb.)-Eagles ink 40 on National Signing Day (Updated 9 p.m.)

By: Andrew Lacy Posted at: 02/06/2013 11:29 AM

CHADRON – The Chadron State College football team has signed 40 student-athletes to its roster, head coach Jay Long announced Wednesday, which was the first day high school seniors could sign National Letters of Intent and Institutional Letters of Intent.

More student-athletes are expected to sign later this week.

Long, who guided the Eagles to a 9-3 record and a No. 18 ranking in the final AFCA Top 25 poll in 2012, is pleased with the recruiting class.

"Chadron State is a great place and it has always been about giving opportunities and this year is no different," said Long, who became the first coach in CSC history to lead a team to the playoffs in his first year. "The coaching staff and I believe we signed a great group of student-athletes. Some will contribute right away and others will be developed.

"Overall, I am excited about this year's class. Our coaches, staff and faculty, and team worked extremely hard to show that Chadron State and its football team is a great place to be. Our success and tradition make student-athletes want to be here. Today, as well as the future, is when we get to reap those rewards."

The 40 commits are spread evenly on offense and defense. Eighteen will be defensive players, 18 will be featured on offense and the final two are kickers.

Thirteen players from Nebraska have signed NLI's. They include Colin Deines and Matt Lordino of Chadron, Ty Dunkel, Matt Klein and Randy Wentz of Scottsbluff, Chance Bauman and Matt Fujan of Beatrice, Mitch Collicott of McCook, Tanner Martin of Grand Island, Tyler Dahlgren of Bertrand, Austin Powell of Lincoln, Creighton Reed of Hastings and Justin Hollman of Crete.

There are also 14 recruits combined from Wyoming and Colorado. Six of the nine signees from Colorado are teammates – Derek Jackson and Diego Rojas of Pueblo West, Sean Watkins and Josh Johnson of Eaglecrest and Chris Sweeney and Tyler Kiess of Thompson Valley – and the others are Baron Coffelt of Castle Rock, Garret Walker of Wiggins and Connor Conilogue of Erie.

Collin Eisenman of Sheridan, Aaron Fenner of Buffalo, Charles Allen of Douglas, Colton Wright of Burns and Tod Wenger of Cheyenne all hail from Wyoming.

In addition, four Texans will join the Eagles. They are Andrew Kaluza of Aquilla, Brewer Newton of Spring, Lucas Ley of Kingwood and Trace Oswald of Houston.

Four recruits from California – Chris Mayes of Winters, Tevin Malone of San Diego, Kyle Gordon of Villa Park and Ryan Staas – and two from Minnesota – Kyle Chrastek of Fridley and Kyle Fatturi of Lakeville – also inked Wednesday.

The other recruits include Taquan Kelly of Merritt, Fla., Justyn Curtis of Richmond, Ind., and Andrew Campbell of Shawnee, Kan.
