Chadron State College's Katie Ranta is the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Offensive Player of the Week and the Nebraska D-II Player of the Week following two stellar games against New Mexico Highland and Western New Mexico.

Ranta, a senior from Rapid City, S.D., had two strong games for the Eagles in wins over Western New Mexico and New Mexico Highlands. She had the fourth-highest scoring game in school history with 37 points in a double overtime win over Highlands. She added a 22-point, 17-rebound performance the next evening against Western New Mexico.

In the game against Highlands, Ranta scored 36 of her points in the second half and overtime, including 22 of the Eagles' 27 points in the final two sessions. For the season, she has 10 double doubles to lead the RMAC.
