(Neb.)- Crawford To Play Six Man Football Next Two Years

(Crawford)- The Crawford school board voted on Monday evening to move the Rams football program from 8-man to 6-man for the next two year cycle.

When the Nebraska School Activities Association released it's new enrollment figures for 2017-18, Crawford's boy enrollment of 25 put the Rams in prime position for the move to 6-man football and make them immediately eligible for playoffs next season.

The move comes as Crawford comes off of it's third consecutive appearance in the D-2 playoffs this past season.
