RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) - The South Dakota Highway Patrol has released the identity of the woman killed last Tuesday afternoon in a single-vehicle rollover accident in Meade County about 3 miles north of Tuthill.

83-year old Leota Frandsen of Martin was alone and northbound when her car left the roadway on a curve about 5:30, went into the east ditch, tipped, and rolled.

Frandsen, who was not wearing a seat belt, was thrown from the car and pronounced dead at the scene. Her funeral was held yesterday in Gordon.
