RAPID CITY, S.D. (AP) - The search resumes today for the remains of a pre-teen girl missing since she ran away from a residential youth home in the Black Hills west of Rapid City over four months ago.

Repeated searches since Serenity Dennard slipped away without a coat in frigid weather on Feb 3 have failed to turn up any traces of the girl, who was 9 at the time.

The Pennington County Sheriff's Office and Pennington County Search and Rescue will lead the ground search of about 120 people as they resume a grid search around the Black Hills Children's Home in Rockerville.
