SCOTTSBLUFF - Investigators with WING - the Western Nebraska Intelligence and Narcotics Group - Task Force arrested five people Tuesday morning at a Scottsbluff motel following an investigation into drug trafficking in Scottsbluff.

Officers from the Nebraska State Patrol, Scotts Bluff County Sheriff's Office, and Scottsbluff Police Department served a search warrant at the motel and seized 25 grams of methamphetamine - a little less than an ounce of the drug.

Arrested at the motel were 40-year old Priscilla Camacho, 44-year old Carmen Garza, 52-year old Mary Knotts, 24-year old Anastacia Red Bear, and 40-year old Josephina Gonzalez.

Red Bear, Camacho, and Gonzales were all charged with possession of meth while Garza and Knotts were arrested for possession with intent to deliver. All five were lodged in Scotts Bluff County Jail.

The WING Task force includes officers and investigators from multiple agencies in the Panhandle, including the Nebraska State Patrol.
