By: Chris Fankhauser Posted at: 01/12/2013 09:17 AM

(Las Vegas)-Today (Saturday) is the final day of activities at Planet Hollywood in Las Vegas for the Miss America Pageant. Preliminary competitions took place this week on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and on Friday, the young ladies competing spent most of the day in rehearsals with the television cameras for Saturday evening's broadcast.

The KCSR/KBPY listening area is being represented by Miss Nebraska Mariah Cook, Miss South Dakota Calista Kirby and Miss Wyoming Lexie Madden. Madden was one of three girls featured in a news segment on ABC Saturday morning, highlighting the journey to Las Vegas.

The pool of 53 young women will be narrowed down to 15 finalists for the competition this evening, who will then have a chance to win the hearts of the judges again by competing in the evening wear, swim wear, talent and on-stage question segments. The pageant will begin at 5 pm Pacific Time, but broadcast times will vary.
